

Removing the "established business relationship" qualifications from the fax regulations is bad for our business, expecially when we already have a relationship with these companies because of their voluntary membership in our Association.